Shanghai International Studies University (SISU) is committed to preparing innovative professionals and future global leaders for a wide range of international expertise, as our slogan goes, "Interpret the World, Translate the Future". Based on your understanding of this slogan as well as your future plan, please write an essay of about 500 words, in the foreign language you have mainly learnt in senior high school. Please do not repeat, in full or in part, the essay you wrote for your personal statement in Chinese.
